County Executive Ryan McMahon Announces Expansions of Propel Pharmacy, LLC & Buckeye Corrugated, Inc.

123 jobs retained; 51 jobs created over 5 years

SYRACUSE, N.Y. – County Executive Ryan McMahon announced the expansion of Propel Pharmacy, LLC and Buckeye Corrugated, Inc. Propel will be expanding into a new space in the Town of Cicero and Buckeye will be expanding into new space at the TR-20 Carrier facility.

Propel Pharmacy, LLC is a telemedicine company that provides pharmaceutical delivery services to customers across the United States. They are expected to spend over $750,000 on their expansion and create 40 new jobs over the next 5 years.

Buckeye Corrugated manufactures corrugated packaging products and has seen an 80% growth in their business over the last three years. They plan to renovate the TR-20 Carrier facility into a 197,000 square foot manufacturing facility. The space is currently empty. Buckeye is expected to spend $1.3 million and create 11 new jobs.

County Executive McMahon said, “There is real momentum in our community and that is validated with the expansion and growth we are seeing in our local business community. Onondaga County is committed more than ever to helping our local businesses not just survive, but thrive.” McMahon continued, “We are proud of Propel and Buckeye for committing to Onondaga County and choosing to grow their businesses right here.”
