In light of the recent Supreme Court ruling and guidance from the NYS Board of Elections, the Commissioners of the Onondaga County Board of Elections give the following clarification on what is acceptable attire in a polling place.

No voter shall be restricted from voting for their political attire. Any voter with such political messaging must be allowed to vote but must immediately be asked to remove themselves from the polling place upon casting said vote. Any voter wearing attire with a candidate's name will be asked to cover up or remove that attire before being issued a ballot.
