The title currently exists in the following jurisdictions: (salaries vary)

Town of Camillus

Town of Cicero

The resulting open competitive eligible list will be used to fill vacancies in any jurisdiction where the title exists.

DUTIES: The work involves responsibility for organizing, supervising and conducting a particular phase of one or more youth-oriented services such as youth tutoring, youth one-to-one or a particular youth development program as assigned under specific policies. Activities are designed to maximize peer interaction, expand participants experience boundaries, promote healthy lifestyles and contribute to and enrich every aspect of positive youth development. Does related work as required.

RESIDENCE REQUIREMENT: OPEN COMPETITIVE examination candidates must have resided in the United States of America or one of its territories for not less than one (1) month immediately preceding the date of exam. Preference in appointment may be given to local residents. Appointments to positions in some municipalities are subject to residence requirements pursuant to local laws.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS: On the date of examination, candidates must meet the following requirements:

OPEN COMPETITIVE QUALIFICATIONS:

A. Graduation from a regionally accredited college or university or one accredited by the New York State Board of Regents to grant degrees with a Baccalaureate Degree in Education, Social Work, Recreation, Public Administration or Human Services related field and two (2) years of *professional level work experience, or its part time equivalent, in the delivery of a youth services program (educational, recreational, juvenile justice, etc); or,

B. Six (6) years of paraprofessional or *professional level work experience, or its part time equivalent, in a human services related field, two (2) years of which must have been *professional level work experience in the delivery of a youth services program (educational, recreational, juvenile justice, etc); or,

C. An equivalent combination of training and experience as defined by the limits of (A) and (B).

* Professional level work experience requires specialized and theoretical knowledge. The experience involves independence of action and personal responsibility for actions.

 Paraprofessional level work experience involves the performance of non-interpretive, routine and non-technical duties in a supportive role to a professional.

Volunteer Experience: Volunteer experience will be allowed to substitute for paid work experience as long as the volunteer experience is equivalent in nature to the paid work experience required for the position.

SUBJECT OF EXAMINATION: There will be a written test, which you must pass in order to be considered for appointment. The written test will be designed to test for knowledge, skills and/or abilities in the following areas:

Advising and interacting with others

These questions test for the ability to interact with other people in order to gather and present information and to provide assistance and advice in a courteous and professional manner.

Preparing written material

These questions test for the ability to present information clearly and accurately, and to organize paragraphs logically and comprehensibly. For some questions, you will be given information in two or three sentences followed by four restatements of the information. You must then choose the best version. For other questions, you will be given paragraphs with their sentences out of order. You must then choose, from four suggestions, the best order for the sentences.

Administering and coordinating youth programs

These questions test for knowledge of youth-related programs and the principles, practices, and techniques used to administer and coordinate youth programs. Questions may cover such topics as: alcohol and substance abuse prevention and treatment; juvenile criminal justice; youth employment, education, and recreation; teen health; and homelessness. Questions may address such areas as: program issues, problems, planning, monitoring, evaluation, and management.

Supervision

These questions test for knowledge of the principles and practices employed in planning, organizing, and controlling the activities of a work unit toward predetermined objectives. The concepts covered, usually in a situational question format, include such topics as assigning and reviewing work; evaluating performance; maintaining work standards; motivating and developing subordinates; implementing procedural change; increasing efficiency; and dealing with problems of absenteeism, morale, and discipline.

TEST GUIDE: The New York State Department of Civil Service has not prepared a test guide for this examination. However, candidates may find information in the publication 'General Guide to Written Tests' helpful in preparing for this test. This publication is available on line at:<http://www.cs.ny.gov/testing/testguides.cfm>
