Regulation Tips

14

15

Start with clear objectives

Consider comprehensive plan objectives & goals

- Provides a foundation

Agree on goals short term rental regulations should accomplish

- Before discussing technical details
- Evaluate draft against these goals

Simpler regulations can more easily be enforced!

15

Clear Definitions

Define short-term rental, include:

- Rental period (e.g. up to 30 nights)
- Distinguish from similar uses (e.g. hotels, motels, bnb's, etc.) with clear definitions for each
- Or specifically include among "lodging" uses
- Define terms used (e.g. hosted, un-hosted, etc.)

16

17

18

Registration

- Makes enforcement possible
- Keep it simple but collect

 - unit being rented
 - party responsible for addressing violations
- Require hosts to share contact information with neighbors to report violations
- Establish a renewal period. Consider automatic renewal if no complaints by neighbors
- Revoke for failure to comply with regulations

18

19

Record Keeping, Occupancy Taxes

Legal Challenges to Local Short-Term Rental Regulation

33

34

Definitions

Fruchter v. Zoning Board of Appeals of the Town of Hurley (Appellate Division, 3rd Department, 2015)

- Board treated STR's as a bed and breakfast, but lacked a proper definition to require a special use permit

34

35

Short-Term Rental Ban

“Webster Case” – Matter of DeVogelaere (Appellate Division, 4th Department, 2011)

- Town amended zoning to prohibit rental of a dwelling of less than 28 days.

35

36

Short-Term Rental Ban – Not a taking

Wallace v. Town of Grand Island (Appellate Division, 4th Department, 2020)

- Town changed zoning to prohibit short-term rentals, with amortization periods. Owner applies for a use variance to continue operation; ZBA denied. Court: property owner not “constitutionally entitled to most beneficial use.”

Credit v. Town of Southold ZBA (Appellate Division, 2nd Department, 2020)

- ZBA Interpretation: Short-term rentals were never permitted in the residential district because they are similar to commercial hotel/motel definition. Courts agreed.

36

37

Lake Placid and North Elba

- Vacation rentals inflated real estate for years
- Increased with online rental platforms, affordable housing crisis
- Following a study, town and village passed a shared short-term rental law in 2020, delayed enforcement
- 90 days maximum short-term rental does not apply to owner-occupants; condominiums or townhouses with homeowners' associations; and rentals in Village Center and Gateway zones
- Requires local manager

37

38

Calvey et al. v. T of North Elba and V of Lake Placid

Out of town owners immediately filed in federal court challenging law's violation of

- Equal protection
- Unreasonable search and seizure
- Property rights
- Due process
- Taking
- Contract clauses in state and federal constitutions
- First Amendment Rights

Court dismissed nearly all, owners dropped, law in revision.

38

39

Hignell-Stark et al. v. City of New Orleans (2022)

Constitutional challenges to New Orleans restrictions on short term rentals:

- 1) Takings for non-renewal;
- 2) Residence requirement violation of Commerce Clause

Fifth Circuit of US Court of Appeals ruled:

- 1) No, permit is a privilege not a right
- 2) Residence requirement violates interstate commerce because of difference in treatment of economic interests.

39

40

Conclusion

- Short-term rentals are controversial because of their benefits to owners and challenges to competition and community
- There is no one-size-fits-all solution; adopt only what can be enforced!
- More complicated regulations have pitfalls
- Avoid providing preferred status to owner-occupants, residents of neighborhood

A local law amending Chapters 300 (Zoning), 227 (Signs), and 250 (Taxation) of the Code of the Village of Cooperstown to revise the requirements and procedures concerning transient rentals.

Section 1. Purpose

The Village of Cooperstown's Comprehensive Plan, adopted in 2016 after months of public meetings and extensive public participation, includes an objective of facilitating a mix of year-round housing types in a variety of price ranges, including rental options, to meet the needs of all Village residents for safe, welcoming, pedestrian-oriented and family-friendly neighborhoods.

The purpose of this law is to provide for transient rentals in the Village's Residential, Business and Commercial Districts consistent with that objective.

Since 1989, the Village has had Tourist Accommodations laws that include criteria such as owner-occupancy, to ensure that residential uses have priority over business uses in residential zones. Amendments to the original Tourist Accommodation law were enacted to strengthen residential integrity while recognizing the need for tourist accommodations in the Village.

This local law is intended to foster long-term housing options. It codifies criteria to ensure that new Short-term Rentals remain incidental to long-term housing in residential areas, creates a procedure to phase out existing Transient Rentals that do not comply with new requirements, and establishes requirements for special use permits and annual registrations to operate a Transient Rental.

Section 2. Chapter 300 (Zoning) of the Code of the Village of Cooperstown is amended by deleting §§ 300-66 (E) (6) and 300-66 (E) (7).

Section 3. § 300-10 (B) (9) of Chapter 300 (Zoning) of the Code of the Village of Cooperstown is amended as follows:

Short-term Rental. (Special use permits considered by the Board of Appeals.)

Section 4. § 300-11 (B) (5) of Chapter 300 (Zoning) of the Code of the Village of Cooperstown is amended as follows:

Short-term Rental. (Special use permits considered by the Board of Appeals.)

Section 5. § 300-14 (B) (5) of Chapter 300 (Zoning) of the Code of the Village of Cooperstown is amended as follows:

Short-term Rental. (Special use permits considered by the Board of Appeals.)

Section 6. § 300-15 (B) (12) of Chapter 300 (Zoning) of the Code of the Village of Cooperstown is amended as follows:

Short-term Rental. (Special use permits considered by the Board of Appeals.)

Section 7. § 300-17 (A) of Chapter 300 (Zoning) of the Code of the Village of Cooperstown is amended as follows.

Short-Term Rentals: See Section 300-17.1 for all requirements regarding Transient Rentals.

In cases where proposed expansion or new construction would eliminate existing required parking, the board charged with reviewing the parking plan shall review the project and may establish a lower minimum parking requirement if doing so furthers the policies for land use as presented in Article I (§ 300-2).

Section 12. § 300-34 (C) (1) of Chapter 300 (Zoning) of the Code of the Village of Cooperstown is amended as follows.

It is the intent of this chapter to permit such nonconforming or noncomplying uses to continue until they are removed or discontinued, since they are felt to be incompatible with the permitted uses in the districts involved. In some special cases, approved by the Board of Appeals, they may be changed to another nonconforming use or to a use determined to be more conforming than the existing use. However, existing nonconforming Transient Rental units shall be subject to the regulations under Section § 300-17.1 for annual registration and conditions of termination.

On an application for a special use permit, an application may be made to the Board of Appeals for an area variance without the necessity of a decision or determination by the Zoning Enforcement Officer.

LOCAL LAW NO. ____ OF 2020

A LOCAL LAW REGULATING SHORT-TERM RENTALS IN THE TOWN OF QUEENSBURY

BE IT ENACTED BY THE QUEENSBURY TOWN BOARD AS FOLLOWS:

The Queensbury Town Code is hereby amended by adding the following new Chapter 115 entitled, “Short-Term Rentals.”

ARTICLE 1. PURPOSE AND INTENT; AUTHORITY.

The Town Board has determined that short-term, transient rentals can be incompatible with the sense of privacy, community and ambience currently enjoyed in residential neighborhoods in the Town and have the potential to create a threat to the public health, safety and well-being within the Town. The Board also recognizes that Short-Term Rentals can attract visitors to the Town and can provide an additional source of income to Town residents. Accordingly, the Board wishes to provide regulations to protect against adverse effects of this use while allowing it under appropriate circumstances. This Local Law is adopted pursuant to New York Municipal Home Rule Law.

ARTICLE 2. DEFINITIONS.

As used in this Chapter, the following words shall have the meanings indicated:

RENTAL –Granting use or possession of a Dwelling Unit in whole or part to a person or group in exchange for some form of valuable consideration.

SHORT-TERM RENTAL – A Dwelling Unit, which may or may not be inhabited by the owner of record or their immediate family, that is rented, in whole or in part, for a period of less than thirty (30) consecutive days to any person or entity, but not including a Hotel, Motel, Inn, Campground, Bed and Breakfast as defined in Town Code Chapter 179.
